Conklin Community School Newsletter November 14, 2016

After School Activities – We will be running after school activities with Mr. J on Thursday, November 17 and 24

Youth Run Club – We had a great first week. Good job students.

Save the Date - The Conklin Community School is pleased to announce that we will have a presentation from former NHL superstar Reggie Leach on Tuesday, November 29th. Thank you to the Conklin Community Enhancement Society for their support! Reggie will speak at the school at 1 pm and at the hall at 6pm.

Student Monthly Recognition Awards - “The Order of the Sash”

We will be handing out 6 “Order of the Sash” Awards each month to deserving students. We will also hand out Perfect Attendance Awards to “ALL” students who have achieved this feat.

The Meaning of the Metis Sash Colours

Red-Is for the blood of the Metis that was shed through the years while fighting for our rights. Blue- Is for the depths of Spirit. Green – Is for the fertility of a great nation. White- Is our connection to the earth and our creator .Yellow- is the prospect of prosperity Black – Is for the dark period of the suppression and dispossession of the Metis land

We will give out 6 awards for the following criteria based closely to the Metis Sash.

Red = Perseverance Award- The student with the best attitude and effort.

Blue= School Spirit Award. The student who shows leadership and school involvement.

Green- Citizenship Award – For the student who shows the best citizenship and helps out fellow classmates. –

White- Connection Award- To the student who shows connection to the school by having the best attendance.

Yellow- Prosperity Award- The student displaying excellence in academics, athleticism and the arts

Black= Courage Award To the student that has displayed courage to succeed and be an honorable person
